Accommodation: Being a chalet style residence there is flexible accommodation that we're describing as follows. Entrance hall leading into a large living room which overlooks the garden. There is then a further spacious reception room with sliding door which opens to the lovely conservatory. At the front is a ground floor bedroom and shower room and then there is the kitchen/breakfast room (new gas boiler 2024), which leads conveniently to a side porch/utility room. Upstairs the landing opens to two good size bedrooms, one of which is particularly generous, also offering a dressing room and ensuite shower room. There is then a family bathroom.

Outside: The house along with next door is approached via a shared driveway off Ashley Common Road (owned by number 36). It then has its own driveway in front of the large garage (5.75 m x 4.44 m) with power and next to this is a carport. The gardens are lovely being relatively private with lawned areas front and rear and shrub/hedge borders. There is a paved patio adjoining the rear of the house and shrub borders at the bottom of the garden some outbuildings, although these are not in the best of condition. Railway line next door.
