Accommodation: The stunning reception hall gives a wonderful welcoming entrance, and there is a beautiful large living room which overlooks the rear garden, and has an attractive fireplace with wood burner. Then a further reception room, which is currently used as a study (or potential ground floor bedroom), and opposite this is a cloakroom/WC. The kitchen/dining/family room is spectacular, with a part vaulted ceiling and underfloor heating. The kitchen itself is tastefully well appointed, and leads to a separate utility room, and then a stable door to the garden. Upstairs the landing opens four bedrooms, with the main bedroom having an ensuite bathroom, the second bedroom enjoying a walk-in wardrobe/dressing room. There is then a main family shower room.

Outside: The house is tucked away and approached along the side of Grey Gables, with its own driveway then giving lots of off-road parking, and leading to a detached double garage. In front of the house impressive gates open to is a lovely secluded area of a courtyard garden. The rear garden also enjoys good privacy and comprises a lawned area with mature shrub and hedge borders, and there is a paved patio adjoining the house.
